

Chaplaincy in and for Schools

A webinar from the Anglican Communion Schools Network

How can chaplains accompany and guide the quest of spiritual exploration and meaning making in school communities?

What role does chaplaincy play in fostering a transformative and inclusive school environment?

Discover the transformative role of chaplaincy in education. This upcoming webinar will explore practical strategies and insights into how chaplains can support students' holistic development, addressing their spiritual, emotional, and social needs. Perfect for educators, chaplains, and school leaders committed to nurturing a compassionate and inclusive school culture.

Join this webinar to

- Gain a comprehensive understanding of the unique and evolving role of chaplains in educational settings.
- Connect with other professionals in the field of school chaplaincy, sharing experiences and innovative approaches.
- Learn how to effectively address the diverse religious and cultural needs of students in a school environment, promoting inclusivity and respect for all faith traditions.

Webinar Hosts

- The Most Reverend Kay Goldsworthy, the Archbishop of Perth
- The Reverend Nigel Genders, CBE (The Church of England Education Office)
- The Reverend Jaques Pretorius, MTh (Anglican Board of Education for Southern Africa)
- The Reverend David A Madison, D.Min. (National Association of Episcopal Schools)

24 September 2024
12.00 pm UTC+1 (London UK time)
Duration: 1 hour

Convert to your time zone using Time Difference Calculator

Register now:

Link to registration page and reminder emails sent by the ACO on behalf of the Anglican Network